THE TEAM

WENDI CHAN WAI FUNG FOUNDER & CO-CEO

Born in Singapore Ms Chan has spent a large part of her life in Singapore and in the United States where she learnt the importance of branding and marketing. She brings her vast experience in branding and marketing, coupled with her instincts and insights on industry practices and new market trends to spearhead Pink Parlour ahead of the competition.

She graduated cum laude (honours) in Bachelor of Science for Marketing from San Francisco State University in 1996. Upon graduation, Ms Chan worked briefly in the hotel industry at the Hyatt Regency San Francisco as a Management Trainee. There, she learnt the importance of grooming, discipline and customer service which she still applies on her day to day interactions with clients and partners. Thereafter, she took on a regional position as an events coordinator for American Power Conversion, an American company. Her work puts her in charge of organizing trade shows and dealer events around the region including countries like Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia and Indonesia, where she learnt project management and working with partners from various countries.

Wendi lived in Jakarta, Indonesia for 3 years and worked as a Merchandise Manager for the largest department store. During her time there, she not only created in-house brands and merchandise for the store but also was responsible for the negotiations and introduction of Italian shoe brands like Marc Jacobs, Sergio Rossi as well as French brand Christian Louboutin to Indonesia. This experience gave her an eye on merchandise creation, branding and sourcing suppliers.

Her interest in Beauty and Fashion ultimately landed her Brand Manager position with Ina Gail Pte in Singapore which owns a chain of Beauty Salons and distributes brands like Dermalogica and Averine cosmetics. After years of building a brand presence for Ina Gail, Ms Chan decided that it was time to use her experience and drive to establish a new brand in the market, starting Pink Parlour in October 2005.
